

FABYAN HOUSE,

WHITE MOUNTAINS, N. H.

Unrivalled in beauty of location.—Not excelled in accommodations offered.

LINDSEY & FRENCH, Proprietors.

Is situated at the terminus of Mt. Washington Branch of the Boston, Concord & Montreal and Mt. Washington Railway, Junction of Eastern Division of the Portland and Ogdensburg Railroad.

WILL BE OPEN FROM JUNE 20th TO OCTOBER 1st, 1875.

BROOKS, OWEN & CARLTON'S ORCHESTRA, OF LOWELL,

Has been engaged for the season.

OPENED TO PATRONS IN 1873.

Has become the most popular of the Mountain Hotels. The charming location is supplemented by efficient management and liberal accommodations.

FABYAN HOUSE WHITE MOUNTAINS. N H.

This House can well accommodate four hundred guests. The rooms are large, high studded, lighted with gas, and furnished throughout with elegant and costly furniture. Telegraph and Post Office in the house, and mails arrive daily from Boston and New York.

ROUTES.

Cars leave Boston from Boston & Lowell R. R. passenger Station at 8 A. M. (through express), via Boston, Concord & Montreal R. R., reaching Fabyan House at 4 P. M.; also, at 12 M., and 6 P. M., (express), via same route, (lodge at Plymouth and proceed to the Mountains early next morning.) Elegant Parlor Cars on these express trains.

Also, cars leave Boston from the Boston & Maine R. R. Station at 7.30 A. M., 12 M., and 5 P. M., connecting at Concord, N. H. with B. C. & M. R. R. line for the Mountains, as by the Lowell route.

Leave New York, Norwich Line—Boat to New London, from pier No. 40 North River, at 5 o'clock P. M., via New London, Worcester, Nashua, Manchester and Concord, Plymouth, (dine), arriving at the Fabyan House at 4 P. M. Parlor cars on this line through from New London to the Fabyan house.

Leave New York, Fall River Line—Boat to Fall River from Pier Nos. 28 and 30 North River via Fall River, Nashua, Manchester, Concord, Plymouth, (dine), arriving at Fabyan House at 4 P. M. Parlor cars run through from Fall River to Fabyan House.

Leave Grand Central Depot at 10 A. M., via Springfield, Worcester, Nashua and Concord, thence by B. C. & M. R. R. to Plymouth, (lodge), thence proceed north to Fabyan House by morning or noon train.

Passengers from Saratoga, Lake George, Burlington and St. Albans via Montpelier & Wells River R. R., connect at Wells River with trains for the Fabyan House.

Leave Montreal in morning via S. E. R. R., Lake Memphremagog, (dine) arrive at Fabyan House in time for tea.

All trains to and from Fabyan House on B. C. & M. R. R. connect at Wells River with Passumpsic R. R., and Montpelier & Wells River R. R. At Northumberland, with the Grand Trunk Railway.

THIS HOUSE

Is a new and elegant Summer House for the Transient tourist, or summer resident, situated near the Wild Ammonoosuc River, at the junction of the road to the

WHITE MOUNTAIN NOTCH, AND THE MOUNT WASHINGTON TURNPIKE

The outlook from the piazzas commands that

Boldest of New England Landscapes,

The White Mountain Range, with the regal summit of Mount Washington, and its famed Mountain Railway as prominent features.

Only six miles from the Base of Mount Washington, four and one-half miles nearer than any other House.

A Fine Livery, Hot and Cold Baths, Billiard Hall and Bowling Alleys connected with the House.

No Hay Fever or Asthmatic Difficulties are ever experienced in this vicinity.

Large farm connected with the House supplying pouae milk, berries and other seasonable luxuries.

Nice Coaches will run to the Mt. Washington Railroad Station—six miles—to connect with all trains.

The different departments will be under the immediate charge of the Proprietors, Messrs. Lindsey and French, and they cordially invite the attention of their friends and former guests to this new and beautiful Hotel.